CENTERVILLE CHRONICLE

Official Newsletter of Centerville City, Utah

Dear Residents:

During my first campaign for Mayor, as I went door to door, a reoccurring question was why I was running for Mayor. My answer was I was taught by wonderful parents that God, family, and country (in this case our city) is always something that one should strive to serve. I would mention how my Father served ten years in the State Legislature and as a young boy between 5 and 15 years old I would visit the Capital during the session, wandering the halls of the Capital and learning the history of Utah.

Utah is known as the Beehive State because of the industriousness of the early saints and settlers. As I have seen the state grow I have seen that ethic of hard work and service passed on to many of the next generation.

With more than just the birthrate, but also the unprecedented migration into Utah over the last 15 years, I worry about the continuation of the cultural characteristics that have made this state great. A few years back I was at Zions National Park where I heard a group of recent out-of-state move-ins talking about all the things that needed to change in Utah. I pointed out to them that those things/values they wanted to change are exactly what drew them here. They appeared a little reflective on that thought.

Now, we are in the middle of working on a new general plan for Centerville. Some residents don't feel that the general plan needs to be updated, but doing so, regularly, is a common occurrence in cities. When the last general plan was formed, growth on the west of I-15 was not much of a reality. Someday the completion of 1250 North into Farmington is going to happen and we need to plan what we want that area to become.

The challenge for all of us is how to support inevitable growth while keeping the history and culture of Utah and Centerville alive. To think that Centerville is not going to grow is unrealistic. To say that we have our piece of land and that nobody else can have theirs is hypocritical. As a city we have given all citizens multiple opportunities to have input in the planning process. We have done so to allow as many voices as possible to be heard.

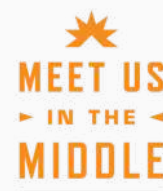

A friend, who has been in Utah state leadership for many years, expressed to me once that preserving the heritage, values, work ethic, and culture of service, etc. of the early founders of this state as we grow is critical to the quality of life that we and future generations experience. I agree with him that this is our challenge, and we must approach it with much thought, prayer, and deliberation.

It is a pleasure to serve and work with you.

Sincerely,

Mayor Clark A. Wilkinson

Stormwater: Where It Flows, Everything Goes

When it rains, snows, or sleets, water hits hard surfaces and takes anything on that surface with it, through drains, pipes, and ditches to local rivers, lakes, and streams.

Cemetery Cleanup

Spring cleanup of all grave decorations is the first week of April. Cemetery visitors are asked to please help our maintenance staff by collecting all grave decorations that will impede grounds care. Mowing season is from April 1 – Nov. 1. Here are three decoration rules to remember:

- Temporary decorations may be placed inside the six-inch mow strips on markers at any time during the mowing season.
- No decorations permitted outside the six-inch mow strip of markers including anything stuck in or placed on the grass.
- Decorations on flat markers & older markers without mow strips will be mowed around one time. At the time of the next mowing, decorations will be discarded with the exception of the week following Memorial Day.

Memorial Day cleanup begins the Monday following Memorial Day when all decorations that have not been retrieved will be discarded. Depending on the amount of decorations left to be cleaned up, it usually takes two to five days to complete. Thank you for your help keeping our cemetery beautiful.
