

I am Luanne Hudson and I am eager to serve on the Centerville City Council. I have lived in Centerville for 32 years. Now semi-retired, I was born and raised in Davis County. I graduated from University of Utah with a degree in journalism and worked for decades in TV, radio, newspaper, corporate communications and education. I have many hobbies including skiing, gardening and grandchildren. I am fascinated by nature, history and science. I grew up with the idea that, in America, all people are created equal. Unfortunately, unaffordable housing and wages that do not keep up with rising costs mean many of our children and grandchildren cannot afford to raise families in the great city of Centerville. I am running for City Council to continue the legacy of Centerville as a place where working class families can thrive. Housing, living wage and Great Salt Lake; it is with these and other topics in mind that I join you in working to nurture our community. We want to believe in the integrity of our institutions, and we do that by rolling up our sleeves and getting to work.
